Overview

F. E. Hale Mfg. Co. is a family-owned, 100-year-plus industry leader in fine-wood bookcases, library furniture, storage, and display cabinetry meeting diverse needs for corporate and law offices, schools, universities, and public libraries. Hale can assist in the specification and design process and provide drawings and renderings to aid in product visualization. Our skilled and experienced in-house engineers design our products for functionality, style, and easy installation. We use real wood joinery and ship as much product as possible factory assembled, rather than knocked down. We appreciate that every piece of furniture that we make is to be enjoyed by the client for years to come; therefore, attention to detail is our top priority.
