Overview

Tevora was founded in 2003. We are a leading management consulting firm specializing in enterprise risk, compliance, information security solutions, and threat research. We offer a comprehensive portfolio of information security solutions and services to clients in virtually all industries, including Education (K-12 and Higher Ed), Federal, State, and Local Government. Since our inception, we have focused solely on cybersecurity.

Tevora's leaders are professionals with years of experience and records of accomplishments in technology as well as business. This dual background means that we understand the importance of growth and profitability and our service offerings are designed to enhance both.

Our hard work and dedication have established us as a reliable partner CTOs CIOs, and CISOs can depend on to help protect against threats, both internal and external. With Tevora as a partner, business leaders can devote their energies to enhancing the overall value of information technology to their enterprise.

We proudly hold the following certifications & accreditations:
