Overview

Computer Transition Services, Inc. is a cybersecurity focused Managed Services Provider headquartered in Lubbock, TX. Founded in 1985, CTSI has over 38 years' experience supporting businesses of all sizes and industries with their IT needs. Our customized solutions are built to protect your organization, and our focus on strategic IT planning helps your business budget, plan and prepare for IT infrastructure and technology solution investments. We service all of Texas and Eastern New Mexico, and we have offices in Amarillo, TX and Midland, TX to better serve our clients in the Texas Panhandle and Permian Basin. Our remote IT services and solutions ensure we can support any entity regardless of geography, and over the years our services have grown to meet the needs of clients in other regions, geographies and states. Our mission is to improve your life and business success, and we are Committed To You.
