Overview

At NEDRP, we have established ourselves as a leading educational consulting company. Our team is comprised of dedicated educators who are committed to unifying the voice of all educators. We provide exceptional leadership, community, professional development, and resources to support the implementation of relational and restorative practices.

Our flagship offering, Relationship Centered Learning, has been developed with a relationship-first approach. It utilizes practical techniques that are designed to proactively strengthen, support, and sustain relationships. With RCL, we firmly believe in putting relationships first in all aspects of learning.
