Overview

Zeptive, Inc. is an indoor air quality sensing business focused on public health and safety, led by a team with over 50 years of experience developing & commercializing chemical detection technologies. Located in Burlington, MA, our mission is to improve indoor air quality by monitoring environmental factors and reducing vaping by teens and young adults with better prevention and deterrence. Zeptive, Inc. has been manufacturing and selling it's patented Wireless (WiFi & Battery) and Wired (Ethernet) vape detectors for over three years.

Zeptive developed the industry's first and only truly Wireless Vape Detector that serves middle and high schools globally. Zeptive sells and services it's products directly to schools all over the globe. Zeptive's Wireless Vape Detector (WiFi & Battery) can be easily installed and in seconds converted to a Wired Vape Detector (Ethernet), no additional hardware required.
