Overview

ERC Environmental & Construction Services, Inc. (ERC) is a Small Business Enterprise (SBE) / (S Corporation) with its corporate office located in Houston, Texas. Our firm was established in 1991 under its former name, Environmental Resource Consultants, in Houston. ERC expanded to the DFW area and Austin to facilitate serving ERC's diverse group of clientele which includes commercial, industrial, financial, institutional, and governmental entities. ERC Environmental & Construction Services, Inc. (ERC) has been operating under its present name since 2008.

Our permanent staff of 30 includes personnel from a diverse background and disciplines experienced in various aspects of Environmental Consulting and Engineering Services. ERC provides both environmental and construction services to many business entities and organizations throughout Texas. We continuously research and implement innovative, cost-effective solutions for our clients' construction and environmental needs.

Our senior management team combined, has over 60 years of experience in Texas and nationally where we have provided similar services on Time, Economically, and with High Quality end results. We have the required resources to manage multiple projects, at different locations, at the same time and offer quick response and turnaround time for emergency calls.

Our business philosophy is to provide quality service at a reasonable fee. These simple principles have allowed us to build long-term relationships with our clients in both the public and private sectors. We constantly strive to increase productivity, knowledge, and efficiency; and to exceed our clients' expectations and have done so without violations for non-compliance.
