Overview

We are a research-based provider of digital citizenship education. Our program provides classes and professional development to K-12 students, parents and educators. We are a state and federal contractor and have served tens of thousands of parents, students and educators in our in-person classes and more online. We believe in a prevention science based approach to preventing unhealthy digital behaviors before they happen. Our services for all 50 states include an Online Certification in Digital Citizenship for teachers, Virtual Parent Classes, Technology consultations for parents and educators and virtual digital citizenship classes for students.
