Overview

Waterford leverages early childhood science and evidence-based research to optimize kindergarten readiness, reading, literacy, and math achievement for PreK-2nd grades. This supplemental and intervention program includes adaptive digital curriculum, multi-media practice, whole and small group playlists, offline resources, embedded formative assessment, and family engagement supports. Dashboard and report data support teachers in effectively identifying student and group intervention needs. The personalized instructional program supports all demographics of students including English Language Learners and special education.

Waterford's impact is demonstrated through recognitions and awards including being named as a 2019 TED Audacious Project and awarded a 2018 Education Innovation and Research (EIR) Expansion Grant by the U.S. Department of Education.
