Overview

Since 1990 Summit has demonstrated expert-level collaborative technology design and Integration services, with custom audio video solutions that fit our customers' needs and budgets. The audio visual solutions we install work; they are simple to use and they do not falter. Summit has helped thousands of clients in corporate, education, government, worship and other industries meet their presentation and conferencing goals. Today, we have seven design and sales offices in the U.S. On every project we provide proven design with state of the art technology and project management excellence. Our solutions and project management process make for a remarkable customer experience which we call the Summit Experience. You will find us to be extremely reliable and responsive at each phase of the project.
