Overview

i2i Technologies provides innovative video communication solutions for effective collaboration and learning. We want people to be seen and heard while feeling valued.

Organizations frustrated with technology that doesn't work, trust i2i Technologies for our detailed diagnostic skills. We transform inoperable rooms into reliable solutions built around intuitive ease of use. We believe that standardization with flexible components provides the best value while keeping the focus on people, not products.

Whatever system you currently have in place, we can help you maximize the return on your investment, improve your processes, and optimize your workflows.

i2i Technologies meets you where you are, listens, and adds value. Our team specializes in learning and engagement of participants. We design plans around your organization's needs and goals using our unique mix of instructional and technical expertise.

We love what we do and can help you love what you do even more!
