Overview

Hoonuit-formally know as Versifit has been providing Technologies data management and analytics solutions to PK-12 educators for almost 20 years. We consistently recognize how trends and policies influence the needs of our customers, and we adapt accordingly to provide a stable, long-term solution. Our ongoing data analytics effectiveness is drawn from the successful implementation of Hoonuit in four state-level education agencies, along with regional and independent school districts, for a total of over 800 school districts. Hoonuit's PK-12 data solution provides a full data warehouse with reporting, analytics, and data visualization all in one. This complete solution allows educators to quickly access, query, analyze, and use data to inform decision-making.
