We regularly consult with our customers to promote clinical best practices and gather feedback about care setting needs. This consultative approach yields right-fit formularies and specific product recommendations based on a particular care setting. Further, our team of over 100 category managers and quality assurance professionals work tirelessly on behalf of our customers to evaluate products, train users on new products, and set up labs and clinics for customers on an as-needed basis. In short, we steep ourselves in knowledge of customer needs to ensure they (and their patients, by extension) get the right products at the right time.
