Overview

The Pope Consulting team has more than 35 years' combined experience in working with Texas public school districts. This experience includes more than 20 years performing and managing taxable value audits, internal audit, risk management, training, general consulting and fraud investigations for districts of all sizes. Pope Consulting has netted Texas school districts millions of dollars in additional funding with these services. In addition, our team has conducted reviews alongside state agencies and have worked with more than 400 schools across the state of Texas. Our goal is to unfailingly provide superior services to school districts of all sizes to meet the specific needs of every district we serve with a tailored approach designed to achieve their mission and goals. We are committed to exceeding expectations and providing comprehensive services to the Texas public educational community.
