Overview

Kyte Learning provides school districts with an online course creator tool coupled with a pre-built library of professional development content focused on technology integration in the classroom. Use Kyte Learning to quickly author and publish courses containing video, text, links, documents, and more. Copy and re-use any one of our more than 14,000 videos from our teacher-built library of ISTE certified ed-tech PD content. Use Kyte's distribution platform to track progress, require evidence based submissions from staff, and utilize the built-in gamification functions to build and award badges. Take advantage of numerous single sign on (SSO) options and learning tools interoperability (LTI) with all major LMS systems including Canvas, Moodle, D2L, Power School, and others.
