Overview

Energy Solutions Professionals (ESP) is a privately owned energy services company based in the Kansas City area that helps clients address energy saving opportunities and critical infrastructure needs in a budget-neutral manner through the Energy Efficiency Triad™ – an approach that encompasses energy supply, facilities/systems and human behavior. ESP is product, vendor and commodity independent, enabling unbiased solution development. We maintain streamlined operations in order to provide exceptional value-oriented services through a process we call energy efficiency|simply™.
