Overview

Dr. Carl Kleinsteuber is a professional musician, educator and brass instrument technician. He has been designing and building brass instruments for 30 years and has been operating as a brass instrument repair technician in the North Texas area since his return from a 25 year professional orchestral career in Europe some 5 years ago. Dr. Kleinsteuber has partnered with Wessex Tubas UK to bring the Wessex brand to the Texas and Oklahoma education market. Wessex has built a solid reputation over the past 10 years by providing quality brass instruments, at competitive prices. Carl Kleinsteuber is personally involved in the design and manufacturing process for Wessex, visiting the factory on a regular basis, and working with Wessex to maintain their thorough quality control process. With a standard 3 year factory warranty on workmanship, and Carl's experience in instrument repair, you can be assured of a quick turnaround for any service queries. Dr. Kleinsteuber has also partnered with renowned woodwind repair specialist, Tony Barrette, to offer North Texas schools a complete instrument repair option.
