Overview

Founded in 1986 as a public works contractor, Terra Dynamics has constructed athletic fields and parks for nearly 30 years in the Seattle region. During that time, Terra Dynamics has built both natural and synthetic turf fields, complete, for a variety of Owners including King County and the Cities of Seattle, Bellevue, Issaquah, Snoqualmie, Redmond, and North Bend. Terra Dynamics has also built athletic complexes for School Districts such Shoreline, North Shore, Bellevue, Auburn, Monroe, and Issaquah. Additionally, Terra Dynamics constructed the practice facilities for the Seattle Sounders Major League Soccer team. As one of the handful of Seattle area firms prequalified by D.A. Hogan, Terra Dynamics has constructed over 80 fields, typically as a general contractor, and self performs all aspects of field construction excepting paving, concrete, fence, and electrical. Terra Dynamics has also performed as a landscape and restoration subcontractor on some of the largest civil projects in the Seattle region. This includes work on I-90, I-405, and SR 520 for Washington State Department of Transportation, as well as for all regional municipalities
