Overview

Division 12 Consulting is a minority owned contract furnishings company representing the finest manufacturers in the contract furnishings industry. Division 12 Consulting specializes in providing sales and service of contract furnishings throughout the nation. Division 12 has been operating since 2006 within the Design Community offering both products and space management solutions. Division 12 has worked with many Owners, Program Management companies, Developers, Design-Build Companies, General Contractors, Architects and Interior Designers across the nation. Over the years we have purchased and installed many different types of loose and fixed products to both K-12 institutions as well as Higher Education facilities. Collectively Division 12 has over 50 years within the Construction and Design communities. We base many of our business and functional decisions on ethical issues and pride ourselves in providing quality furniture and design to our clients, large and small. The creative environment provided by our leaders encourages similar values and beliefs by our staff members. All of these factors lead to our belief that our client is the most important person or organization in our business.
