Overview

Spacestor are the creators of workspace furniture that combines California cool with London design. From our experience working with both cultures and clients like Google, Apple and Jaguar Land Rover, we know how the workspace environment can drive employee engagement and build culture.

Throughout nearly three decades, we've established ourselves as a key innovator of workspace furniture and design thinking in the UK. Eight years ago, Spacestor spotted a major shift in workspace culture and took the decision to open a Design Centre in California, USA. This has given us a unique position to observe and learn from the companies that are driving this culture change.
