Overview

Christman Facility Solutions is a premier full-service construction contractor with more than a century of experience. A full complement of more than 500 skilled craftspeople and laborers, along with experienced project managers and field supervisors, provides superior knowledge and capability both on and off the jobsite to complete work not only efficiently, but with high quality workmanship. We are passionate about constructing and creating the facilities that drive our economy, improve our public infrastructure, and create the spaces that enable our clients to do what they do best.
