Overview

Encore Technology Group is an IT solutions provider that supplies best-in-class enterprise networks, managed services, digital and physical security, infrastructure cabling, cloud computing, and engineering services that optimize and defend the mission-critical functions of business, public sector, and educational organizations throughout the southeastern United States and beyond. Through deployment of the Enboard identity and access management platform, we deliver automated account provisioning/rostering and personalized single sign-on with unmatched security tools, user self-service, and resource utilization insights to school districts nationwide. Simply stated, Enboard removes the barriers that keep both learners and educators from experiencing educational technology's full potential.
