Overview

Specialty Restoration of Texas was established in 1968 in the home of Raymond and Barbara Redding. The company evolved into a full service restoration business in 1983. Currently, the business is still privately owned by Raymond and Barbara's sons, Wayne Redding and Stuart Redding. Specialty Restoration of Texas has continued to provide high quality restoration services for more than 50 years.

Specialty Restoration of Texas is a full-service residential and commercial contractor specializing in the repair of property damaged by fire, water, smoke, mold, storm damage, biohazard conditions or crime scene damage. We also offer a 24 hour National Disaster Relief Team. This allows us to use our skills and expertise anywhere in the country. We serve a variety of industries including residential homes, commercial buildings, medical facilities, schools, churches and military installations.
