Overview

Kellogg & Sovereign Consulting, LLC (KSLLC) is considered one of the top E-rate consulting firms in the nation due not only to the number of applications filed (399 applications filed in FY 2010 impacting over 980,000 students), but also the quality of work and attention to detail provided for each applicant. KSLLC has been involved in technology and education since the 1980's, and their professional staff has been filing E-Rate applications on behalf of schools and libraries since the inception of the program. As a founding member of the E-rate management Professionals Association, KSLLC is committed to the ethical management of all E-Rate related processes. KSLLC provides comprehensive E-Rate management services for schools and libraries representing them throughout the entire E-Rate process including assisting with technology planning and request for proposals (RFP), bidding, Item 21 attachment preparation, application review, audits and post-funding and compliance activities. KSLLC hosts a bidding website (www.erate470.com) which assists clients in maintaining an open, fair & competitive bidding process. KSLLC also maintains a web site focused on E-rate issues (www.kelloggllc.com) that provides timely information, reference materials, forms, calendars and training materials. The firm provides training and dissemination of critical E-rate program information via regularly scheduled conference calls, webinars, conferences, seminars and hands-on workshops.
