Overview

Ardour Inc. specializes in obtaining hard to find skilled professionals, who can deliver quality services with minimal training.

At Ardour Inc. we have a deep knowledge of our clients needs. Since no two clients are the same, analysis is at the core of how we operate and therefore start our process with a detailed analysis in order to determine the workforce requirements. We use a customer-centric engagement model that combines both on-shore and off-shore resources with the cost, global expertise, and quality advantages of off-shore operations.
