Overview

Frog Street Press, LLC., founded in 1990 is owned by Excelligence Learning Corporation, a leading provider of educational tools and solutions to early childhood and elementary school teachers and parents. In 2010, Frog Street introduced the Frog Street Pre-K curriculum to the market during the Texas Pre-Kindergarten adoption and has since been able to garner a 60% market share of the Texas public school's Pre-K classrooms during the adoption. Using this as a springboard to expand nationally, Frog Street has developed a national sales team and has significantly expanded professional development services and offerings. Since 2014, the Company has invested in and developed a new curriculum for Toddlers (ages 18-36 months), a program for Infants (birth-18 months), and a three-year old program. In 2020, Frog Street released a new comprehensive, dual-language Pre-K Curriculum, as well as Frog Street Pre-K at Home and the Family Fun Learning backpack that are available for purchase across the US. Frog Street is located in Southlake, Texas and has a national sales team. Our Professional Learning team has experience with school districts and organizations across Texas and the United States, and will work together to provide world-class Professional Learning to the educators.
