Overview

CMR proudly works on government and commercial projects throughout the country. Our dedication to excellence drives our growth and earned us a place among the top-third largest US Roofing Contractors every year since 2007.

We have installed over 14 million square feet of slate, tile, and copper roofing since 2004 on over 3,500 projects nationwide. We are proud of our ability to routinely exceed project demands of every size and complexity by applying in-house industry expertise, specialty trade skills, superior materials, and a proven project management process that delivers results.
