Overview

Our mission in one word is: Teachers. The teacher is the heart of every classroom. Without their voice clearly heard by all students, learning is lost one lesson at a time. Hearing everything changes everything, for both teachers and students. That's why TeachLogic creates products that reproduce a teacher's natural voice, so it is clearly heard by all students regardless of where they sit. These same products amplify all audio sources to create equitable access to instruction.
