Overview

Xpress Restoration, LLC specializes in a variety of restoration and cleaning services for both residential and commercial properties. We hold expertise in water damage restoration, which involves water extraction, drying, and dehumidification to address flooding and leaks. Additionally, our fire damage restoration services include the removal of smoke and soot, as well as repairs related to fire impacts.

We also provide mold remediation services, ensuring the safe removal and prevention of mold growth in affected areas. Our extensive cleaning services cover a wide range, from air duct and carpet cleaning to biohazard cleanup, catering to various needs. Furthermore, we provide comprehensive storm damage restoration, helping properties recover from the ravages of storms and natural disasters.

For commercial clients, we offer specialized services tailored to the unique demands of commercial spaces, managing large-scale cleaning and restoration projects. These services underscore our commitment to helping individuals and businesses restore and maintain their properties in the wake of unforeseen events and disasters.
