Overview

Educational Resource Company is the exclusive provider of Short, Short, BIG - a research-based, supplemental curriculum that prepares students to write well-organized short answer responses and cite evidence from a source text to support their claims. This 10-week program takes the ambiguity out of teaching evidence-based writing. Our standards-based toolkit, consisting of a Teacher's Guide and consumable printed student worktexts, is targeted to grade 3–9 students reading in the 350–790 Lexile range. Written for teachers by teachers, SSB uses a proven methodology that combines reading comprehension lessons, grammar instruction, and plenty of skill-building persuasive/argumentative writing practice.
