Overview

Vexus is the leading provider of fiber-based communications solutions for both residential and businesses customers across Texas, New Mexico, and Louisiana. Vexus is a Texas-based company with Texas-sized values, offering a full suite of services including Internet, managed services, local and long-distance telephone, phone systems and digital TV – all delivered over a pure fiber network.

Vexus has over 35 years of experience and the goal is to provide a better choice in communication providers. Our state-of-the-art, gigabit fiber network uses the latest technological advancements and allows us to provide the fastest and most reliable services to our customers. At Vexus, we are proud to serve as a trusted business partner, a reliable home connection, and to provide exceptional local customer service to the communities we serve. Our 24/7 local support teams are located right here in Texas to ensure we provide the best service possible to our friends and neighbors.
