Overview

Sown To Grow is a comprehensive student support platform that empowers schools to improve student social, emotional, and academic well-being through an easy and engaging reflection and feedback process. Designed by a team of former educators for practical classroom impact, Sown To Grow offers a simple Tier 1 practice for building sense of belonging and key life skills, with actionable pathways for identifying Tier 2 & 3 needs.

Teachers, school leaders, and district administrators gain real-time understanding of student emotions to inform proactive student support. The system includes expert PD/training, built-in character strengths assessment, supporting curriculum, and powerful artifacts of student growth.

Sown To Grow is funded by the US Department of Education, the National Science Foundation, Digital Promise, and New Schools Venture Fund.
