Overview

John W. Danforth Company has been a leader in the contracting industry in the Northeast region of the United States. Since 1884, it has been our mission to deliver industry leading experiences to our customers every day. We have strategically integrated services in order to provide our customers with a one-stop building services provider, which allows our company to take a comprehensive view of our customers' facilities and offer the very best in custom-tailored solutions. Our focus areas include HVAC, Refrigeration, Plumbing Systems, Project Development, System Design, Commissioning, Energy Solutions/Performance Contracting and Preventive Maintenance in commercial markets. Our commercial markets comprise of K-12 Schools, Municipalities, Higher Education, Healthcare, Industrial and Private Facilities.

Danforth is an Employee Stock Ownership Plan (ESOP) company, investing in not only our employees but also the company as a whole. Currently, there are 250 full time office employees working between our six offices located in Upstate New York and Columbus, Ohio. Our corporate office is located in Tonawanda, NY. Additionally, we have office locations in Rochester, Syracuse, Albany and Hudson Valley, NY and Columbus, OH. Aside from our office personnel, we regularly employ over 900 skilled tradespeople working on projects throughout the state.

This growth has given Danforth the opportunity to expand career opportunities throughout New York State and surrounding regions. Our growth has been recognized in the industry; recently we were named the 4th largest contractor in the Northeast (previously ranked 7th). Our organization was named the 2020 Contractor of the Year by Contractor Magazine, a national publication. In 2018, our organization was named the Mechanical/Plumbing Contractor of the Year by Plumbing and Mechanical Magazine, also a national publication.
