Overview

The non-profit organization, Cook Center for Human Connection, provides innovative programs and unprecedented mental health services to equip parents and educators, improve human connections, and build protective factors for children and families. ParentGuidance.org supports parents with access to on-demand courses developed and delivered by licensed therapists. Coaching is also available and includes weekly 30-minute phone or video conference sessions with a trained coach. A curriculum app and text messaging for immediate support (24-hour response) are included. Mental Health Series events are offered for parents, caregivers, and educators to address urgent concerns of families. Professional development is also provided.
