Overview

Since 1996, CompuCycle has been the premier electronics recycler for both corporate, educational, and residential customers in the Greater Houston area. We provide a best-in-class, turnkey solution that stewards and protects clients' IT assets at every stage of life, with one account manager handling all services.

CompuCycle adds value to corporate clients by transforming their IT departments from a cost center into a profit center. We offer a full spectrum of ITAD services, including onsite inventory, secure data destruction and shredding, asset recovery, asset remarketing, inventory management, and data center decommissioning.

Thanks to our unique shredding system, we are able to guarantee data security to a greater extent than any recycling provider in Houston because we do not have to engage third-party shredders. We lock up your assets before transporting them to our controlled-access facility and generate detailed reports at every stage of decommissioning or destruction to ensure your peace of mind about your intellectual proper
