Overview

Origin is a family run furniture company who design and manufacture a range of contemporary polymer chairs for a variety of uses within hospitality, workplace and educational environments.

We strive to make good design available to everyone and thats why we design quality products that not only meet the demands of some of the biggest brands in the world but are also affordable enough to someone starting their first cafe.

With major success throughout Europe, Origin Furniture have expanded into the US market by establishing a US based company in Pennsylvania with its own distribution facility and office space.
