Overview

At Brodart, we have developed innovative products such as the modular circulation desk, and a leg connection that's so good we warrant it for life. We not only work in hardwood, veneers and laminates, but we are also skilled at working with metal, glass, solid surface and acrylic resins. Our 200,000 square foot state-of-the-art facility and equipment allow us to make superior products that withstand decades of use.

Our highly trained staff and network of award-winning dealers are devoted to providing the best service possible; whether it's design and layout assistance, custom product development, renderings, or quality installation service - Brodart is your one source for all your library furniture needs.
